Key Characteristics of the Change:
Order Code

Forecasted Key Milestones:

Date Customer Must be Ready to Receive Post-Conversion Material:	Aug 15, 2005
Date of First Availability of Post-Conversion Material:	Jul 14, 2005

The date of "First Availability of Post-Conversion Material" is the projected date that a customer may expect to receive the Post-Conversion Materials. This date is determined by the projected depletion of inventory at the time of the PCN publication. The depletion of inventory may be impacted by fluctuating supply and demand, therefore, although customers should be prepared to receive the Post-Converted Materials on this date, Intel will continue to ship and customers may continue to receive the pre-converted materials until the inventory has been depleted.

Description of Change to the Customer:

Due to an error in a database, the MM number for Intel IXF30009/10/11 Optical Transport Processor had not been changed to the final version when going from pre-production to production status in October of 2004. Because of this, the production silicon has been shipping under the old MM# since then.

This has now been changed and all silicon will now be shipped under the final MM#. There is no FFF (form, fit or function) change to the product.

Customer Impact of Change and Recommended Action:

No technical impact to customer. Customers should have their Procurement department update their database with the correct MM numbers.
